ANNOUNCEMENT By Republic Billiard Hall Luchini & Rudeck, Proprietors

AVING secured an indepentent lease for five years of the entire upper story of the John S. Caple block, we wish to announce to our patrons and friends that we intend to give Alma one of the finest Billiard and Pocket Billiard Establishments in Central Michigan. We have added tables and acquired considerable more space, which has been fitted up in the best of style. In addition we have added a 24-inch exhaust fan guaranteed to change the air in entire room in seven minutes

We Wish to Thank

Our many friends and patrons for the liberal support we have received during the past three years and hope to merit a continuance of the same during the coming years. We have endeavored to give lovers of the billiard game a good clean recreation hall which, we think by our past trade has been appreciated.

In enlarging our present hall we left nothing undone to give Alma as an up-to-date billiard establishment as can be found in a city of its size in Michigan.

Thursday Evening, Mar. 6

We have secured

Morton's Pep Orchestra

of four pieces, which will render music from 7 to 10 o'clock

Gentlemen are cordially invited to bring their wives to inspect our Billiard Hall
